

Affidavit of Financial Resources and Immigration Information for International Students

HORACE H. RACKHAM SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN-FLINT

ALL INTERNATIONAL APPLICANTS MUST COMPLETE THIS FORM AND PROVIDE DOCUMENTATION AS REQUIRED.

Date of Birth (month/day/year) / /

If you will need an F-1 or J-1 visa, the University of Michigan is required by U.S. government regulations to obtain documentation proving that international applicants have adequate financial resources to provide for their expenses, including dependents, for the duration of their program. You are required to certify the availability of US $26,696 for your expenses for the first year only, and indicate source(s) of funding for subsequent years. Tuition, fees and other expenses are subject to change. Plan for an annual increase of 5% to 10% for all costs. There are many pre-schools and day-care centers in the Ann Arbor area. Depending on type of care, age of child and if this service is part-time or full-time, the costs range from $55 per week to $200 per week. Funds may come from a variety of resources, including personal, government, organization, institution and/or school. Your admission will be finalized upon receipt of all completed, signed and dated financial documentation forms. Keep copies of all financial documents to present to the U.S. Consulate when applying for a visa. If you are currently in the U.S. you must attach a copy of your most recent I-20 or DS-2019.

DOCUMENTATION OF FUNDS

All applicants must complete this form and provide documentation as required.

1. Official documents on official letterhead showing the exact amount of funds on deposit must be provided. Notarized copies, photocopies and faxed documents are NOT acceptable. Applicant's name must be indicated on all financial documents.
2. Letters of attestation stating only that your sponsor can meet expenses are Not acceptable. Insurance premiums and policies are Not acceptable.
3. All documents must be in English; translations must be signed and sealed by the appropriate government or bank official.
4. All supporting documentation must be dated within one year of initial enrollment.
If you are currently in the US, you must provide a current bank statement.

PERSONAL FUNDS

If you will be supported by personal funds (self, family or other relatives), complete and submit the "personal sources" portion of the Affidavit of Financial Support on the reverse side and a bank statement for each individual contributing financially to your education. In case of jointly held accounts, each individual holder must provide the Affidavit of Financial Support. Together, all funds must total at least the "TOTAL Estimated Expenses" for the first year of study. Bank statements are required for the first year of study only. However, you must also indicate "source of funding" for all study years. If your sponsor is a Permanent Resident or citizen of the U.S., a completed I-134 form, with all supporting documentation, including an official bank statement, is required.

OTHER (GOVERNMENT, ORGANIZATION, INSTITUTION/SCHOOL)

If you will be supported by a government agency, organization or institution/school in your home country, the responsible officer should complete and submit the "funding agency" portion of the Affidavit of Financial Support, or a detailed letter from the sponsor, indicating the exact dollar amount for tuition/fees, living expenses, books and supplies and health insurance, is also acceptable. This letter must state all the information requested in the Affidavit of Financial Support to include the "source of funding" for all study years.

You are required to certify a total of $26,696 for the first year of study. If you do not receive financial assistance from the University of Michigan, will you have sufficient funds to support your studies?  No  Yes

All International applicants must complete this form and submit the required financial documentation. Providing financial information will not affect your chances for receiving financial support from the program or department.
