

University of Michigan Rackham Graduate School
Childbirth Accommodation Fund Request Form
(Graduate Student Research Assistants)

Under some circumstances the Principal Investigator (PI) or administrator of an external grant supporting a Graduate Student Research Assistant (GSRA) who gives birth may request reimbursement for the salary and benefits of the GSRA during the Parental Accommodation Period. This form must be completed by the PI or administrator of the grant supporting the student and submitted to the Rackham Fellowships Office and submitted prior to the conclusion of the term of accommodation.

Please Note: The Childbirth Accommodation Fund applies only to students who give birth and who have a GSRA appointment.

Eligibility for Childbirth Accommodation Funds is subject to the following conditions (check one):

- The regulations of the external funding agency do not permit a six or eight week period of reduced activity and absence to accommodate the Parental Accommodation period; or
- Project deadline requires the hire of a temporary replacement.
