

University of Michigan Rackham Graduate School
Parental Accommodation Fund Request Form
(External Fellowship Recipients)

Students who are supported by external fellowships and give birth or adopt a young child may be eligible for substitute payment of fellowship benefits during the Parental Accommodation Period. This form must be completed by the student, approved by the Graduate Chair, and submitted to the Rackham Fellowships Office, along with supporting documentation to demonstrate eligibility for these funds, no later than the end of the term of accommodation.

Eligibility for Parental Accommodation Funds is subject to the following conditions:

1. Applicable to students who give birth or adopt a young child and are supported by fellowships external to the University of Michigan.
2. The regulations of the external granting agency require suspension of fellowship benefits during the six-week (12 weeks for the birth parent) Parental Accommodation Period. Attach supporting documentation to demonstrate your eligibility for these funds.
